We wish to have every lady in town call and inspect our Sterling vacuum cleaner. It will surely lift the dust out of your carpets and rugs if you will give it a chance. We will be pleased to demonstrate this vacuum sweeper in your own homes if you will leave your request for a demonstration when intending to purchase.

This sweeper will make a suitable Christmas gift for any lady. It is finished on white enamel and mahogany color and presents a very dainty appearance. It is similar in appearance to the ordinary carpet sweeper, and is as easily handled. The price is moderate.

You will find a sample on our counters. Let us order one for you for Christmas.

JANUARY 4, 1913.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. Dave Loeb of the Popular will leave tomorrow night for Los Angeles on a two week's business trip.

The many friends of Mrs. Ed. Lanier will be sorry to learn that she has been quite ill during the past week.

Colonel Breathitt has for several days past been in the city, a guest at the Montezuma hotel, from Tucson, his home.

Mrs. Sam Leeker and the youngsters, are spending the winter at Mrs. Leeker's old home in Memphis, Tennessee.

LOST—Bunch of keys. A liberal reward will be given for the return of same to Banco Nacional de Mexico, Nogales, Sonora.

Clay Mundy, paymaster for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, came up from Empalme and spent New Year's here with friends.

Wanted—A gentleman wants a nicely furnished room, for a couple of months, with a refined Spanish family. Address box 39, Nogales, Arizona.

Hon. Bo. J. Whiteside of Patagonia, returned Thursday from Tucson, where he enjoyed New Year's dinner at the home of Conductor Lon Haley.

E. Grebe, representative of the Copper Queen, arrived in the city last evening from Cananea, and this morning went north on the Nogales Benson train.

Joe McIntyre has gone to Los Angeles for a short visit with his brother George, who spent Christmas and New Year's here with relatives and friends.

S. M. Franklin, the prominent Tucson attorney-at-law, who enjoys a good practice all over the state, was here Thursday on legal business in superior court.

James Reagan has purchased the business of Lou Stevens, at Patagonia, and will again make his home in the second city in the county. We wish him good luck.

Ed. Caddell, of the Caddell Mine, Colorado, who has been spending a couple of weeks here looking after his local interests, will depart for home in a few days.

Luis Hind, the English mining engineer, representing the Swansea, Consolidated Gold & Copper Company, of Swansea, Arizona, is a guest at the Montezuma hotel.

E. E. Bethell, manager of the Washington Trading Company's big Patagonia store, has gone back to Kentucky to be with Mrs. Bethell, who has been quite ill at her old home.

Warren Smith, many years a resident of Nogales, who now resides in Tucson, is visiting here with his sister, Mrs. E. Gonzalez. He has been very ill recently, but is slowly improving.

Chairman Henderson and Member Fortune of the board of supervisors, were here yesterday attending the session of the board. Member Peck of this city, and Clerk Herold were also present.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Brickwood building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty.

The New Year's ball at the Santa Cruz Club was a joyous social affair, being largely attended by many of Nogales, best people. The grand march was led by Captain L. W. Mix, mayor of Nogales, and Mrs. H. M. Claggett.

Dr. John Magruder is in the city from Washington. The doctor has resided in Sonora many years, and is one of the best known Americans in the state. He has many friends in Nogales who always extend him the glad hand of welcome.

Mrs. Snelling, the wide-awake hustler for subscriptions to the Tucson Citizen contest, in which she secured second place, and $300; also a $50 prize, is grateful to her many friends and acquaintances, who so kindly helped her win the money.

Thursday evening, last, members of I. O. O. F., Lodge No. 9, of Nogales, met and installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Noble Grand, E. B. Jones; Vice Grand, T. P. Thompson; Secretary, E. K. Cumming; Treasurer, M. Escalada.

One day this week the little son of Bert Sorrells was badly injured in a runaway, his collar bone being broken and his head badly cut. Dr. Smelker made a record-breaking run to the Sorrells ranch and soon had the brave little fellow fixed up.

Jack Culley, who sold his interest in the Havalena mining property to J. Wells Smith, is back from Tucson, where he pleasantly passed a week with friends. Jack has other mining interests in Santa Cruz county, said to possess some merit.

Zimmerman's Palace of Sweets on Thursday moved into the nice store room in the Montezuma building, formerly occupied by the American Drug Store, now at home in the new Wise building on Morley avenue, between The Palace and Alex. Carpena's haberdashery.

Hon. H. J. Saxon, representative from Santa Cruz county to the state legislature, has resigned his position with the livestock board, his place being filled by Ralph McCorkle, of Calabasas. Mr. Saxon will attend the second special session of the legislature called to convene February 3rd, at the state capital.

Dr. Bim Smith, the well known Hermosillo physician and surgeon, was a visitor in the city the forepart of week, having come up to meet his mother who came from Los Angeles, and will spend the remainder of the winter at Hermosillo with him. While here Dr. Smith was the guest of his old friend Dr. Gustetter.

The new parcels post system now in force will greatly reduce the revenue of railroads and express companies throughout the United States. Until the public becomes familiar with the new system, we pity the postmasters and their assistants, as well as those sending parcels. Turkeys and cranberry sauce can now be sent by parcel post, so can butter and eggs, etc.

Friends of James Leehy, of this city, one of Arizona's old pioneer citizens, are making an effort to have the old gentleman admitted to the Pioneer Home. The best days of Jim Leehy's life have been spent in Arizona where he has occupied many positions of trust, and no man is more deserving to serve the remainder of his life in Arizona's pioneer home than he.

Lou Tremaine, the dare-devil cross-country auto driver, accompanied by Sam Lacey, arrived in the city Thursday from Tucson on mining business. Lou and his brother Will, are considered among the best in the auto game. With their famous Pope-Hartford they have made some great records. Lou says he is still in the running and next year will go after some big prizes.

Yesterday M. L. Raines, the mining man, received the sad news announcing the death in the city of Mexico of his elder brother Martin E. Raines, who visited Nogales several months ago. Martin died in the American Hospital and was buried in the American Cemetery. At the time of his death he was superintendent of a big mining company for which he had worked a number of years.

J. W. Schultz, one of the oldest, most popular expert "mixologists" in the state, has accepted a position in Ed. Lanier's Palace, where in future he will be night manager, and where he will be pleased at all times to meet his old friends and acquaintances. Joe Dupuy, who has been manager of The Palace for the past eight years, as usual will be on watch during the day to care for the foot sore and weary.

Captain Milan the well known ex-Boer army officer who for some time past has been making Nogales his headquarters, returned Tuesday evening from a hunting trip down at Cerro de Plata, Sonora, where he was a guest of the Holt boys, Elgin and Walter, who showed him a royal good time. He brought from the great silver bonanza mine, a number of rich, beautiful specimens of silver ore, a New Year's present to THE BORDER VIDETTE, with Elgin Holt's compliments. The captain says the Holt boys are princes and bound to become millionaires.

George D. Gross, who recently disposed of his interest in the Havalena Mining Company, after securing his adjoining mining property out in the Patagonia mountains, came to town yesterday. Besides the Santo Nino group of claims, George says the Havalena company owns a big group of iron and copper deposits of great value. If the company's property is what George thinks it is, his property will make him independent.

Thursday W. G. Bowman, ex-agent for the Southern Pacific at this place, now engaged in the cattle business, being the personal representative of Millionaire Silva of Sacramento, California, arrived from the Imperial Valley, and yesterday shipped a trainload of Sonora cattle to the California market. He has two thousands more Sonora cattle in his big pasture in Sonora, south of this city a few miles. Mrs. Bowman and Miss Edna are visiting friends in Los Angeles.

This evening The Arcade saloon recently purchased by Major Loreto Carrillo of this city, and Tom Smith of Tucson, will be open for business, after having been closed for a week, during which the place has been given a thorough overhauling by an artistic decorator. Messrs. Carrillo and Smith will personally conduct the big wet goods emporium, one or the other of the gentlemen being constantly "on the job" to make things pleasant for patrons. They extend a cordial invitation to their friends to call and have "a smile".

On December 26th, at Benson, Mr. Frank Taylor, Sheriff McKnight's popular deputy, and Miss Ethel Armitage, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Armitage of Benson, were married. Upon their arrival in Nogales where they will make their future home, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were given a rousing welcome. Later Frank was placed in irons by orders of his chief and chained to a tree in the park. After promising to pay all the fines imposed by Judge Lon Haley, the happy benedict was hurried home in an auto. THE BORDER VIDETTE extends hearty congratulations.

H. A. Smith, the Sonora land buyer, who makes his headquarters in Tucson, has been here several days, superintending the re-building of his automobile, resurrected from the sands of the Imuris-Cocospera river, where it was buried some months ago, when Mr. Smith was coming from Imuris to Nogales via Cocospera. At the time Mr. Smith was accompanied by his wife and Dr. Mabry of Imuris. When caught in the flood waters, Mr. Smith and party narrowly escaped drowning. When Karns Brothers get through overhauling the machine, it will be almost as good as new.

Ben F. Powell of Elgin, accompanied by Mrs. Powell left the forepart of the week for Florence, where they will spend some time visiting. Sump Freeman and family. Several years ago Freeman was engaged in the business of raising cattle in this county, his home being near Elgin. Since leaving here he has made good on a ranch near Florence, where he has a fine herd of cattle. Mr. Powell will look the Florence country over thoroughly before returning to Santa Cruz county, and if it looks good to him, he may decide to locate there. He has sold his Elgin place, but still has a bunch of cattle.

H. Gordon Glore, the metallurgist, accompanied by Frank N. Cox, the mining man, returned home Monday evening from a visit to the Tiburon Islands, where they spent several days the guest of Chief Juan Tomas of the Seri Indians, from whom they secured a lot of Indian curios for a wealthy New Yorker, who has expended a vast amount of money in the collection of curios from all parts of the globe. The gentlemen were accompanied by Attorney George Avery of this city, who is the personal representative of the New York gentleman. A number of pictures of the Seri Indians and curios, including bows and arrows, baskets, etc., were secured on the trip which no doubt will greatly enhance the value of the curio man's collection. Mr. Glore has visited the Tiburon Islands many times and possible is more familiar with the natives there than any other American. He and Chief Juan Tomas are old-time friends.

Jim Gordon, many years connected with the Sonora branch of the Southern Pacific, until recently chief train dispatcher with headquarters at Empalme, is now assistant superintendent of the new Nogales-Cananea division, of which A. F. Krohn is superintendent. The superintendent's office will be at Naco. Mr. Gordon lived here with his family a number of years, and has a wide circle of friends here, all of whom will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday and took up the matter of appointing new justices of the peace and constables. After considerable discussion, adjournment was taken until next Tuesday. J. J. Chatham, justice of the peace and C. P. Lopez, constable of Nogales, refuse to resign, contending there was no election last year hence they are still "it". Watkin Gittins believes he was legally elected justice of the peace at the last election, and Henry Stewart is sure he defeated Lopez; and there you are. The courts may have to decide the matter after all.

BACK FROM TEPEC.

Three Well Known Arizonans Have Royal Time on West Coast.

Bubbling over with good cheer and feeling fine, declaring the West Coast of Mexico unequalled on earth for climate, natural resources and hospital people, W. F. Overton, superintendent for many years of Wells Fargo & Co., with headquarters at Nogales, Captain J. D. Milton and Captain Chas. L. Beatty of the U. S. immigration service, stationed at Fairbank and this city, returned to the states last Monday evening from a three weeks vacation pleasantly spent on the West Coast, as far south as the beautiful, interesting cities of Mazatlan and Tepic.

En route south the gentlemen spent a couple of days a Guaymas, where they enjoyed a fishing excursion, being chaperoned by that prince of good fellows, Captain McCormick, one of Guaymas' pioneer American citizens, who is always ready and willing to show his friends the best there is to see in and around the interesting bay city. They will never forget his many kindnesses.

From Guaymas, Mr. Overton took his "boys" to Mazatlan, by the sea, where high government officials and prominent, wealthy citizens extended to them every courtesy, with the result that they saw the best to be seen in that rapidly growing progressive city, which still shows the scars of the battles fought there between the rebel and government forces. Every moment of their stay in Mazatlan was pleasant.

After several days gloriously spent in Mazatlan, where they received the glad hand of welcome, the three distinguished visitors departed for the city of Tepic, with its beautiful private homes, public parks and delightful all-the-year-round climate, "unequalled in the world," said Captain Milton, who is a born poet and a great lover of Dame Nature and everything that is beautiful.

When at Tepic the gentlemen were guests at Hotel Felton, where they were royally entertained by Mine Host and Hostess Felton, old friends of Captain Milton, who says he will never forget them for the many kindness shown himself and friends while in Tepic. The gentlemen are also loud in their praise of the reception tendered them by the governor of Sinaloa, and the chief of police of Tepic, as well as other prominent citizens of the state.

They will long pleasantly remember their visit to the West Coast.

Legislature Will Meet February 3.

Monday February 3rd, has been set by Gov. Hunt, as the day on which the state legislature will meet for its second special session.

Gov. Hunt says: "In my call will be recommendations for the usual appropriations to maintain the state government and its institution for two years, and I will also recommend the abolishment of capital punishment, good roads legislation and the removal of the industrial school from Benson to Fort Grant."

The Governor's call will probably be issued sometime next week.
